There is no oppo

Seventy of the 128 members of the At sembly will be new men, and the Democratic handsome majority was made in the of New York, Brooklyn and Buffalo, which have twenty-one more Demogratic votes than last year. With their increased rably under the recent agportionment and their proportionate majorities, the cities will exercise a predominant influence in legis-lation. New York, Brooklyn and Buffalo have fifty-four Democratic Assemblymen. The interests of the Countles in what is known as the Metropolitan District—West-chester, Queens, Suffolk and Richmond are identical with New York's, and their reprevote as the city members vote. Albany will ally itself with the other cities also. That id add ten or twelve more votes to the -four, or more than enough to defeat and her legislation to squeeze more taxes out of the cities.

It is said that Assemblyman James F. Quigler, or Brooklyn, will be made Chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, which carries with it the leadership on the floor, and Hamilton Fisa, jr., who led the revolt with the ex-wicked Gibbs against Mr. Platt's World's Fair gift to Chicago, will be the Republican leader in the Assembly.
